APPEARANCE GUIDELINES

General

- Uniforms must be clean, fit properly and be worn properly each day
- Only natural hair colors are allowed. No colored hair dye will be allowed.
- Hair should be kept neat, clean and out of the eyes.
- No extreme hairstyles are permitted (including, but not limited to, punk, shaved or Mohawk style)

Girls

- Girls' skirts must be hemmed to the knee. Girls' skirts and shorts should be modest. If gym shorts are too short or too tight, girls will be required to wear their uniform sweatpants/athletic pants. Uniform sweatpants cannot be replaced by leggings. Please make sure the athletic pants have an appropriate fit and are not too tight.
- Simple jewelry such as a watch, ring, single stud earrings (no dangling earrings) or any religious items (cross, medal, or scapular) worn on a necklace are permitted.
- Hair accessories such as a headbands and barrettes should be simple and in good taste
- No makeup is allowed (including fingernail polish). If girls have painted nails, their parents will be called, and they will be asked to grant permission for the student to remove her nail polish in the Main Office.
- No body piercing, other than ears is allowed

Boys

- Boys' shirt must be tucked in, and a belt must be worn every day
- Trouser waistbands may not be worn lower than an inch below the navel
- Hair should be kept short (not below the collar or the bottom of the ear). If hair becomes unmanageable, messy, or distracting, the student will be asked to cut it.
- No facial hair should be worn
- No jewelry other than a watch is permitted
- Any religious items such as a cross, medal or scapular may be worn inside the clothes
